Jean Davoust Editeur and Trilogy Records are pleased to announce the wide release of Une Nuit La La La written by Amanda Sthers

Jean Davoust Editeur and Trilogy Records are pleased to announce the wide release of the captivating Children's tale "Une Nuit... La La La..." This wonderful French production features the participation of many notable French artists. Included on the production are songstress Marie-Amélie Seigner as L'étoile; Guy Maruani as Le Crocodile and Jerome Bardon Lewy as Le Lapin. The music was written by Jerome Bardon Lewy and Sylvain Ott while the story was written by Writer/Director Amanda Sthers.

The CD features beautiful music and songs, and somewhat hysterical characters in song and spoken word and is guaranteed to entertain children and adults alike. The recording is packaged on CD with a read-a-long storybook insert, boasting striking graphics by Full Fx illustrated by Patricia Danan. The production is broken down into 2 parts designed as a children's bedtime story.

A perfect ending to a perfect day that leaves the listener wanting more, so getting the kids to bed at night is easier then ever with "Une Nuit... La La La..." beckoning! The CD also contains 3 bonus music tracks from the production.
